5 things you can do to protect your kidneys

Finding and treating kidney disease early may delay or prevent kidney failure—take these steps.

1. Get a blood test and a urine test to know how well your kidneys are working.

3. Aim to be active 30 minutes a day for most days of the week.

4. Limit alcohol consumption and quit tobacco use.

5. Talk to your doctor about prevention, treatment and management.